

Condé Nast Traveller

WIN
A FABULOUS
HOLIDAY ON MALLORCA

TRUTH IN TRAVEL

NOVEMBER 2010 £3.90

SUITE TALK

DUBAI Opening this month on the private peninsula of the Palm Jumeirah crescent, the Moorish-style One&Only The Palm will be the island's first boutique beach resort. It will have 90 rooms, four beach villas, three restaurants (including one on the marina), a private beach and an ESPA spa. 00 971 4 399 9999; www.oneandonlyresorts.com. Doubles from about £500

LONDON A new Waldorf Astoria hotel opens this month, set in 200 acres of grounds in the south-west of the Capital.

London Syon Park will have 137 rooms, several restaurants and bars and a large spa with Vichy and hydrotherapy rooms and a pool. Unique features include a butterfly house in the lobby and an ice-cream parlour. 020 7870 7777; www.londonsyonpark.com. Doubles from £240

JAMAICA The former home of Ian Fleming, now owned by Island Records mogul Chris Blackwell,

Goldeneye is due to reopen after an redesign overseen by Biba founder Barbara Hulanicki. There are 11 additional beach cottages, six new lagoon suites, two extra rooms in the Fleming Villa and two new restaurants.

01865 200034; www.goldeneye.com. Doubles from £360

MIAMI Vikram Chatwal's Dream South Beach opens this month on Collins Avenue in what were two Art Deco hotels. It will have 108 bedrooms, an Ayurveda and holistic-healing Chopra Center & Spa, a restaurant by NYC chef Geoffrey Zakarian and a sleek, 1970s-inspired rooftop bar and lounge. 001 888 376 7623; www.dreamsouthbeach.com. Doubles from $275 FRANCESCA SYZ

PHOTOGRAPH: NICK SMITH PHOTOGRAPHY